

Small Group Homework – Week of May 22, 2016

On Sunday we heard of God’s story in the lives of one of our own families. They heard God’s call and followed him. Wouldn’t it be wonderful if all of life were so clear. But it often isn’t.

Getting to know you

Can you think of a time when you thought you knew what God wanted but afterwards wondered if you had made the right move? What made you wonder?

Digging deeper

1. God’s guidance is always available but our own actions and attitudes sometimes determine whether we receive it. In the chart below, write the verses say about the condition we must fulfill to receive God’s guidance. Then describe what it would mean to fulfill this condition in your daily life.

	The Condition	How to fulfill it
Ps. 25:12; 25:14; Prov 9:10
Ps 25:9
Ps 25:4-5; Is 58:9a; James 1:5

Ps 143:8; Prov 3:5
Prov 18:15
Is 58:8b-11
John 5:30b
Romans 12:2

2. Think hard on this one. Review the chart and circle the things that are hardest for you. Why would it hinder your ability to hear God?

3. We often want God to tell us our next move when we don’t want to follow the previous move he has already given us. Why do you think we almost always focus on what to do and not on how he wants us to live?
