

The Cup of the King

Matthew 26:36-46

See yonder another King's garden, which the King waters with his bloody sweat-Gethsemane, whose bitter herbs are sweeter far to renewed souls than even Eden's luscious fruits. There the mischief of the serpent in the first garden was undone: there the curse was lifted from earth, and borne by the woman's promised seed.

-Charles Spurgeon

I. The Son's Preparation

II. The Son's Prayer

III. The Sleeping Disciples