Stories of the Sovereignty of God

"God has the will, the ability, the power, and the right to do whatever will bring Him the most glory and work for His people's eternal good; unhindered by any action, inaction, or opposition, from any part of His creation. In other words, He can do anything that is in line with His character and perfection. He is not limited by anyone or anything. His will and plan will be accomplished."

Small Group Study Questions

Into the Bible

 We see all these stories in the Bible where God exercises great power over nature and circumstances to serve His purposes and help His people. We could think "God never does that for me!" How do we see this kind of power today in our daily lives today? How does He use His great power to help His people today? (e.g. - Matt. 19:23-26, Ephesians 1:3-14, 2 Corinthians 10:2-6, Ephesians 3:7, 20)

2. We also see stories in the Bible where God uses His great power to deal with people, their bad choices, and the direction they should go in order to please Him. How do we see this kind of power in our lives today? How does He use His power to move the hearts of men today? (e.g. - Romans 6, John 14:15-17,25-27

Application

 Spend some time sharing personal experiences with God's power in your daily life to help you, convict you of sin, direct you, and encourage you.

For Families

4. Talk with your children about how God's power and control is applied to our lives in His love and wisdom.
