

The Lord Remembers
Prophetic Pictures, Part 2
Zechariah 2-3

There is no such thing as a great man of God, only weak, pitiful, faithless men of a great and merciful God.

-Paul Washer

II. The High Priest

Into the Bible

1. Well before Zechariah, Isaiah prophesied of one who would arise as Israel's Messiah. (Isaiah 11:1 & 11, Isaiah 53:2) How do these verses connect to Christ and his coming?

Application

2. Zechariah sees Joshua, the high priest, having his filthy garments removed and given clean, new robes as a symbol of sins removed and righteousness given instead. We have much to be thankful for since Christ has done this for us and continues to do this. (Psalm 103:12, 1 John 1:9, Isaiah 61:10)

3. In Revelation 7:9-11, John records a vision of a multitude of people from every tongue and tribe around the world standing in worship around the throne of Christ. This is the ultimate fulfillment of God's covenant with Abraham blessing the nations. What is our role in making this come to pass? (Matthew 28:18-20, Acts 1:8)

For Families

3. Talk with your children about how Christ's birth at Christmas fulfilled prophecies given hundreds of years before.
